Gist of the event (Limit 100 words)	The Innovation Club of CSE(AIML) organized the "TECHCONNECTION" on 13.09.2025. The TECHCONNECTION event hosts a wide range of engaging activities tailored for students from diverse streams of engineering and technology. Participating in TECHCONNECTION, students gain holistic development. It not only sharpens their technical skills but also nurtures creativity, teamwork, and leadership. Students become more confident in public speaking, presentations, and networking. They also build portfolios that strengthen their resumes and give them a competitive edge in placements and higher studies. Additionally, TECHCONNECTION helps students stay updated with industry trends, preparing them for future challenges.
Participants feedback (50 words)	The TECHCONNECTION event was very useful and engaging, helping us gain practical knowledge, improve teamwork, and explore the latest technologies in an enjoyable way.
